A POSITIVE NECESSITY.

Having to lay upon my bed for 14 days from a bruised leg, I found relief when I used Ballard's Snow Liniment. I can recommend it as the best medicine for bruises ever sent to the afflicted. It has now become a positive necessity upon myself. D. R. Byrnes, Merchant, Droversville, Texas, 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold by Dr. H. F. Hoover.

Hurt by a Blast Explosion.

SPARTANBURG, May 9.—Mr. John Dobbins, a workman on the new steel bridge, which is being erected over Pacolet river at Clifton, No. 3, was dangerously if not fatally injured by being caught at the explosion of some rocks at the quarry where the workmen are getting the rocks for the piers and abutments of the bridge. Saturday afternoon three fuses of blasting had been set and subsequently reports followed.

Dobbins, thinking all of the fuses had discharged their purposes, went to the spot, and at this time an explosion occurred. Later on his fellow workmen extricated him from a pile of rocks and dirt. His head and shoulders were badly bruised and gashed up. It is thought that his skull was fractured.

Purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, and should you be a sufferer from disease, you will use it if you are wise. R. N. Andrews, editor and mgr. Cocoa and Rockledge News, Cocoa, Fla., writes: "I have used your Herbine in my family, and find it a most excellent medicine. Its effects upon myself have been a marked benefit. I recommend it unhesitatingly." 50c. Sold by Dr. H. F. Hoover.

There'll be no Irish There.

A woman sat in a street-car in a Canadian town one day when the car stopped at a crossing and another woman got in and sat beside the first woman saying, "Well, well, Mrs. Fiewclose, wherever have you been all summer?" "Oh, we were at the Lake." "So were we—at Grand Bend." "We were at Port Stanley," said the woman who had opened the oratorical contest.

"Have a nice time?" "Well, not exactly. There's so many Irish there," she added with a weary look, but without so much as a glance about the car.

"Same way at the Bend—Irish, Irish, everywhere."

A stout lady under a green hat that turned up behind sat in the seat immediately in front of the elocutionists. The stout lady turned and sized them up, but by this time they were dead to the world.

As the car rattled on they talked of everything and most everybody, and finally fetched up at the summer resorts with Irish for dessert.

By this time there was Irish stew in the front seat.

The stout person under the pea green hat turned and shone one them. "Ladies," she began. "Lave me give yez a bit uv advice—the next time ye get a holiday, yez better spend it in hell—there'll be no Irish there."—Cy Warman in Lippincott's.

WHOOPING COUGH.

"In the spring of 1901 my children had whooping cough," says Mrs. D. W. Capps, of Capps, Ala. "I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with satisfactory results. This is the best remedy I have ever seen for whooping cough." This remedy keeps the cough loose; lessens the severity and frequency of coughing spells and counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. Sold by Bamberg Pharmacy; H. C. Rice.

Good Chance for Saving.

A naval officer recently returned from the Isthmus of Panama tells the following story concerning the wealthiest man on the Isthmus:

"Senor M— is known all over the Isthmus as the stingiest man who ever lived. He will have no lights in his house, except candles, and the lone candle in his sitting room is not burned at night when he is talking to visitors and is not compelled to have a light.

"The old man has a nephew who makes the money fly. A short time ago he called on his uncle at night. While they were talking the old man blew out the candle.

"What did you do that for?" the youngster asked.

"Why, we don't need the light while we are talking," the uncle replied.

"While the uncle was talking earnestly the boy began to shuffle about in the dark. Much annoyed by the interruption, the old man said: 'What are you doing?'

"Only just taking off my trousers," the boy replied. 'I don't need them in the dark and want to keep from wearing them out.'

H. F. HOOVER

does not hesitate to recommend Kodol Dyspepsia Cure to his customers. Indigestion causes more ill health than anything else. It deranges the stomach, and brings on all manner of disease. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat, cures indigestion, dyspepsia and stomach disorders. Kodol is not only a perfect digestant but a tissue building tonic as well. Renewed health, perfect strength and increased vitality follow its use.

Invited the Limit.

It is necessary for Judge Parker to have something to talk about since he refuses to be interrogated on political questions, and he has a story of a young man in Savannah named DuBose, who invited his sweetheart to take a buggy ride with him. The young woman had a very fetching lisp. When they reached a rather lonesome bit of road the young man announced:

"This is where you have to pay toll. The toll is either a kiss or a squeeze."

And the modest young woman simply replied: "Oh, Mr. Du Both!"

Pat's Liberality.

Father Doyle, of the Catholic World tells this story of a parishioner of his, Patrick O'Reilly:

One morning "Pat" carelessly threw a five dollar gold piece into the contribution box thinking it was a dime. He grieved about it so deeply and volubly that at length the matter came to the ears of the father himself. He sent for "Pat."

"Here, Pat," he said, "is your five dollar gold piece. Be more careful in the future."

To his surprise "Pat" pushed away his hand.

"No father," said he, "take it, I gave it to the church. Let it go to the devil."

MADE YOUNG AGAIN.

"One of Dr. King's New Life Pills each night for two weeks has put me in my 'teens' again," writes D. H. Turner, of Demapsytown, Pa. They're the best in the world for liver, stomach and bowels. Purely vegetable. Never gripe. Only 25c, at J. B. Black; H. C. Rice.

Rev. Dr. McLeod Thanks God For Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.

REV. A. McLEOD, D.D., OF THE DETROIT PRESBYTERY.

"I am now in my 73d year and have served God fearlessly and to the best of my ability in my chosen calling. For more than forty years I have been afflicted with dyspepsia and nervous prostration. At times I would get so run down constitutionally through overwork as to be disqualified entirely from discharging my ministerial duties. The older I grew the more the disease seemed to prey upon me. The most noted physicians failed to prescribe any medicines that benefited me. I could neither eat nor sleep, and for more than two years I had to take sleeping powders every night.

"My nervous prostration became well nigh unbearable. But for the grace of God helping me, I would not be in the land of the living. Language fails to express the agony of my mind.

"Something over a month ago I began taking your preparation, Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. In the brief period of two days I found that it began to help me. It gave me strength, settled my nerves and I have gained ten pounds since taking it. I thank God there is such a medicine to be had, and recommend all people with weak, broken-down constitutions and nervous people especially to use it. I feel that it will help them. I will be glad to answer any communications in regard to the healing virtue of your preparation. I am a temperance man, and I do not think my position in this matter will be misunderstood." Yours very truly, (REV.) A. McLEOD, D.D. Greenleaf, Mich., Jan. 22, 1904

Rev. Dr. McLeod's endorsement is but the outpouring of a grateful soul. The letter of a man who has been relieved of great suffering and who openly acknowledges the great medicinal value of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. Ministers of the gospel, doctors of medicine, nurses and people in every walk of life unite in commending this wonderful medicine—the only perfect tonic-stimulant, the one true, medicinal whiskey. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey cures coughs, colds, worst form of grip, consumption, bronchitis, pneumonia, catarrh, dyspepsia, and all kinds of stomach trouble. It never fails to build up a worn-out system, to soothe the tired nerves, to bring perfect health to the whole being. Every testimonial is published in good faith and guaranteed. For sale by druggists and grocers or direct, $1.00 per bottle. Medical booklet free. Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y.
